Amey Daldy - Letters

1901 [?] – 1905

Amey Daldy (nee Hamerton) was born in 1829, at Yarwell, Northamptonshire, England. A noted women's rights and social justice campaigner throughout the late 19th and early 20th century, she was president of the Women's Franchise League, Auckland branch (1893) and National Council of Women of New Zealand (1898). Following a debilitating stroke in 1905, which left her unable to speak or walk, Amey Daldy was forced to retire from public life. She died in Auckland on 17 August 1920, aged 91 years.
