Any Museum Staff member or Museum Volunteer seeking membership of the Institute shall upon payment of the appropriate subscription fee be entitled to receive immediately their appropriate membership benefits. Their names will then go forward to the Council for confirmation of membership.

8.5 Returned Services Association Members

Any Returned Services Association (RSA) group wishing to become a member of the Institute shall upon payment of the appropriate subscription fee be entitled to receive immediately its membership benefits. Its name will then go forward to the Council for confirmation of membership. Privileges of membership shall be restricted to two nominees.

8.6 Group membership, including household membership categories

A group may become a member of the Institute from time to time as decided by Council. Group membership categories may be available for subscription. Any approved group, upon payment of the appropriate subscription fee, shall be entitled to receive immediately its membership benefits.

8.7 Children's Individual Membership

Any child under 13 years of age may become an individual member of a children's membership group and receive immediately its membership benefits.

8.8 The Council may from time to time determine other categories of Institute membership.

9. SUBSCRIPTIONS

9.1 All subscription rates shall be determined at the Annual General Meeting each year or at a Special General Meeting, provided notice of intention to propose a change shall be included on the agenda. Council shall recommend the subscription levels to the Annual General Meeting or Special General Meeting, with a nominated date of commencement.

9.2 All sums received for life subscriptions shall be invested and the interest arising from such investments shall be applied to the uses of the Institute.

9.3 Annual subscriptions may be initiated and paid at any time throughout a year. Thereafter subscriptions shall be payable on the anniversary of joining.

9.4 Membership will lapse either on a member's resignation or automatically when the annual subscription is not paid by the date it falls due. Any member whose membership has lapsed may be readmitted upon payment of the current subscription.

10. NOTIFICATION

- 10.1 Every new member shall receive due notification of membership and of entitlement to a receipt of a copy of the Rules. -

11. BENEFITS

- 11.1 Institute members will be informed of their benefits. Benefits will be published to members annually.
- 11.2 All Institute members are entitled to membership benefits at the Museum. Museum membership conditions will be agreed in writing between the Museum and the AMI Council from time to time, and will form part of these Rules.

12. HONORARY LIFE MEMBERS

- 12.1 Persons who have been eminent benefactors of either the Museum and/or the Institute or distinguished patrons and promoters of their objects, may be elected Honorary Life Members, and shall have all the benefits of membership without the payment of subscriptions. Nominations of such Honorary Life Members shall be made by the Council and submitted for election to the Annual General Meeting. Not more than 2 Honorary Life Members shall be elected in any one year.

13. TERMINATION OF MEMBERSHIP

- 13.1 A Member may resign by giving written notice to the Secretary, to be delivered by post or electronic message. Resignation will not entitle the Member to a pro rata refund of membership fees.
- 13.2 Notwithstanding any other provision of these Rules, membership may be terminated by the Council in the following way:
- (a) If, for any reason whatsoever, the Council is of the view that a Member is breaching or has breached the Rules or is acting or has acted in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Institute, or is bringing or has brought the Institute or the Museum into disrepute in any way, the Council may give written notice of this to the Member ("the Council's Notice"). The Council's Notice must:
- (i) Explain how the Member is breaching the Rules or acting in a manner inconsistent with the purposes of the Institute;
 - (ii) State what the Member must do in order to remedy the situation; or state that the Member must write to the Council giving reasons why the Council should not terminate the Member's Membership, that Member's written submission to be sent by electronic mail, courier or postal service, to be received by the Secretary within seven days;

- (iii) State that if, within 14 days of the Member receiving the Council's Notice, the Council is not satisfied, the Council may in its absolute discretion immediately terminate the Member's Membership;
 - (iv) State that if the Council terminates the Member's Membership, the Member may appeal to the Institute as set out in clause 13.2(b);
 - (v) Be delivered to the Member's last known address;
- (b) 14 days after the Member has been sent the Council's Notice, the Council may in its absolute discretion by majority vote terminate the Member's Membership by giving the Member written notice ("Termination Notice"), which takes immediate effect. The Termination Notice must state that the Member may appeal to the Institute at the next Council Meeting by giving written notice to the President requesting a hearing ("Member's Notice") within 14 days after the Member's receipt of the Termination Notice. The Member's Notice must be delivered by electronic mail, courier or postal services to reach the Institute offices before 5 pm on the last day of the notice period.
- (c) If the Member gives a written Member's Notice to the President, the Member will have the right to be fairly heard at a meeting of the Institute Council to be held at a venue of the Council's choice within the following 28 days. If the Member chooses, the Member may provide the President with a written Explanation of the events as the Member sees them ("the Member's Explanation"), the Member's Explanation to be delivered to the Institute's offices at least 5 whole working days before the date of the meeting, and the President must give the Member's Explanation to every Council Member before the Council Meeting. The Member may present further oral submissions at the Council Meeting.
- (d) When the Member is heard at a Council Meeting, the Member and the Council Members may ask questions of each other.
- (e) The Council shall then by majority confidential vote decide whether to let the termination stand, or whether to reinstate the Member. The Council's decision will be final.
- (f) For the avoidance of doubt, where a membership has been terminated under this Rule 13, the Council, at its discretion, may refuse to accept a new application for membership which it reasonably believes is for the benefit of the Member, whether that application is in the name of the Member or otherwise.

14. MEETINGS OF THE INSTITUTE

- 14.1 The Annual General Meeting shall be convened by circular or advertisement. It shall be the duty of the Council to distribute to all members (by post or electronically) at least 16 days prior to this meeting a report of the proceedings for the previous year, together with a balance sheet and income and expenditure account.
- 14.2 The Council may call a Special General Meeting when it shall deem it necessary. It shall also do so on receiving a requisition in writing signed by not fewer than 30 members and specifying the purpose for which the meeting is required. The purpose of the meeting shall be notified to members at least 10 days before the date of the meeting, and no other business may be entertained at that meeting.
- 14.3 Such General Meetings may be convened by a notice in writing addressed to each member at the address given to the Institute and sent by post or electronically not less than 10 days before the date on which the meeting is to be held. The accidental omission to post a notice to any member shall not invalidate the meeting.
- 14.4 Other meetings shall be called at such times as the Council shall decide.
- 14.5 All questions arising at meetings of the Institute shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in cases of equality the chairperson shall have an additional or casting vote.
- 14.6 Proxy votes may be given at Special and Annual General Meetings of the Institute on a form available from the Secretary of the Council which votes shall be exercised in the manner specified in the form.
- 14.7 Any group membership, including corporate, RSA, Māori tribal membership and household or family categories is entitled to 2 votes at Special and Annual General Meetings of the Institute, and for all elections.
- 14.8 A member must be aged 16 or over to vote or authorise a proxy vote.

15. QUORUM

- 15.1 The quorum for Annual and Special General Meetings of the Institute shall be 20. If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the time for which an Annual General Meeting is convened those present shall adjourn the meeting. If a quorum is not present within 15 minutes of the time for which a Special General Meeting is convened the meeting shall lapse.

16. MEETINGS OF THE COUNCIL

- 16.1 The Council shall meet for the transaction of business at such time and place as may be appointed by the President. Special meetings of the Council shall be called on the requisition of the Vice-President or any 3 members of the Council. The Secretary shall send due and sufficient notice of all meetings to each Council member.

16.2 The quorum for meetings of the Council shall be 6.

16.3 All questions arising at meetings of the Council shall be decided by a majority of votes, and in cases of equality the chairperson shall have an additional or casting vote.

17. CHAIRPERSON

17.1 The President shall preside at all meetings of the Institute or of the Council. In their absence, the President's duties shall be assumed by the Vice-President. In the absence of both the President and the Vice-President, a member of the Council shall be appointed to take the Chair at meetings of the Institute or of the Council.

18. SECTIONS

18.1 The Council may, on the request of members or on its own initiative, establish sections or affiliate societies for the prosecution of any branch of science, literature, history and the culture of the peoples of New Zealand and the Pacific. Membership of such sections or affiliated societies will be open both to financial members of the Institute and to others. A section or affiliated society may hold meetings independently of the meetings of the Institute, may have its own rules not inconsistent with these Rules and which have been approved by the Council before coming into effect, and shall report annually on its activities to the Council. A section or affiliated society shall not be empowered to act in the name of the Institute or act in any manner of public importance affecting the Institute's interests unless especially authorised by the Council.

19. ALTERATIONS

19.1 No change to these Rules shall be made except at an Annual General Meeting or at a Special General Meeting summoned for that purpose, and constituted in accordance with these Rules. In the case of an Annual General Meeting the circular concerning the meeting pursuant to Rule 14.1 shall contain the text of the proposed change.
